

Robert Rollman is the founder and owner of Europacom Pte. Ltd., which is a Singapore based company, but operates across many countries in Asia and Europe.

Europacom is an established company in telecommunications with more than twenty-five years experience with a particular focus on Value Added Services (VAS). Europacom manages contracts with various companies around the world for VAS billing and collecting using all available methods such as: Direct Carrier Billing for apps, Premium SMS for pin access to online content, credit/debit and POS billing for online and interactive content. Given Europacom's range of agreements and experience, Europacom has leveraged this by also contracting with digital Content Providers by bringing VAS billing and collecting solutions for their products e.g., video game publishers, interactive TV and streaming programs and call centres.

Europacom provides mobile strategies and business development and expansion to VIDA Mobile Ltd., based in the UK. The business development is for the Golden Steps App, which is a innovative fitness app because it rewards its subscribers by being active. The areas of expansion for Golden Steps, managed by Robert, is for South Asia and South East Asia.

Europacom also advises the Board of Hayman Capital (Yangon, Myanmar) for mobile strategies and integration on mobile banking. Hayman Capital is the largest (for profit) Micro Finance Institution in Myanmar.

Additionally Robert Rollman advises FORA Space for its expansion in Asia. FORA Space is a premium flexi-work company which has a large portfolio in London and is growing fast.

Robert was Managing Director of Ponte Latino Investimentos S.L. from 2012 to 2018. Ponte Latino was a Joint Venture between Robert's UK company, Ponte Latino Marketing and Atlas Interactive also from the UK. Ponte Latino Investimentos S.L. was registered in Madeira, Portugal but operated from Barcelona, Spain. Robert managed a team, which developed websites, mobile sites, apps and interactive television programs for the Latin American region with the brand "La Linea de la Vida". All the sites integrated all available domestic and international payment processing platforms as well as the use of click-to-call telephony technologies, which allowed end-users to access call centres via the respective website and/or app

Ponte Latino entered into a Joint Venture in 2013 with RCN, the second largest free-to-air television network in Colombia. The scope of the JV included producing an interactive television program and digital marketing campaigns with RCN's large domestic and international reach.

Ponte Latino also entered into JV with TV Azteca, the second largest free-to-air television network in Mexico. This JV combined Ponte Latino's content, websites, call centers and payment processing platforms with TV Azteca's large in-house and international digital marketing teams and their inventory of TV spot advertising.

In 2009 Robert raised funds from a group of international investors for Intervision Strategies Ltd., where he was Managing Director till 2012. Intervision marketed and promoted online bingo and casino websites called BingoRico for Spain, Colombia and Mexico and BingoRicco for Italy. Intervision had a license agreement with Parlay Games for the provision of the bingo and casino games. The online gambling market changed dramatically in Europe with the introduction of local licensing regime.

Robert is based in Barcelona, Spain and is a graduate of Villanova, University (Pennsylvania, USA).
