

ENRICO SANNA

Enrico Sanna is the co-founder and CEO of Fora, a premium workspace provider that is bringing together the best of hospitality, design and members clubs to create environments that inspire. Fora currently owns fifteen buildings in locations including Clerkenwell, Borough, Reading, Southwark, Spitalfields, and Soho with new sites opening in Shoreditch and Fitzrovia.

With a background firmly footed in the corporate environment, having held various roles across Deutsche Bank, including its hospitality portfolio, Enrico was inspired to start Fora with Katrina Larkin, sharing in the vision for an improved customer journey and the future of workspace. Backed by a substantial investment from Brockton Capital, Fora is challenging the co-working landscape as it leads the way in championing spaces designed for productivity and wellbeing.

In addition to his banking credentials, whilst at Deutsche Bank, Enrico has also served on the board of the Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas, taking it from an operating loss of $35m to a turnover of $155m in just three years.

In 2018, alongside co-founder Katrina Larkin, Enrico was listed sixth on the OnOffice Top 50 Power List.
